FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 07/21/2015

[REDACTED] Inmate, Metropolitan Correctional Center (MCC), 150 Park Row, New York, New York, was advised of the official identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview.

He was advised of his constitutional rights, as per Federal Bureau of Investigation form FD-395, "Advise of Rights," which he acknowledged both verbally and then by signing the waiver at the bottom of the form. He then furnished the following information:

On May 18, 2015, [REDACTED] who was incarcerated in the dormitory of Unit 11 South of the MCC, was lying in his own bunk bed when he heard inmates at the gate yelling for the correctional officers (COs) telling them that someone was not moving. An inmate he identified as ROBERTO GRANT, also known as Berto, was the individual they were referring to, who would not wake up and did not move.

He stated that a rumor was going around that his windpipe was crushed but he does not believe it because no one could have crept in and done that before someone would have stopped it. [REDACTED] is not involved with K-2.

Berto was someone he described as not much of a television watcher but instead would rest on his bunk bed a lot. He was someone who was respected on the unit and was friendly with everyone, known as a bit of a peacemaker. Berto would check on [REDACTED] and offer him food.

He then furnished the following information:

On May 18, 2015, [REDACTED] who was incarcerated in the dormitory of Unit 11 South of the MCC, was watching television at a table when he heard inmates calling for the correctional officers (COs), saying that an inmate he identified as ROBERTO GRANT, also known as Berto, passed out. As the COs attempted to lift GRANT from his bunk bed, he was dropped hard to the floor, which made a loud sound.

Prior to the event, [REDACTED] was in the bathroom making Kool-Aid. He had seen GRANT lying in his bunk bed in good spirits. Everyone in the unit got along well and he does not believe anyone would hurt GRANT. GRANT did not have any problems or ongoing disputes with anyone on the unit and everyone on the unit got along well. Inmates would stop anyone from hurting each other and it would be impossible for it to happen without someone seeing it. If someone had crushed his throat everyone would know about it.

Berto smoked K-2 but he did not see him smoking it on that particular day.
